

THE PADUCAH DAILY SUN.

VOLUME 1—NUMBER 77

PADUCAH, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1896.

TEN CENTS A WEEK

FOR CUBA.

Two Resolutions Introduced in Congress.

JOE BLACKBURN PLEASED.

But Republicans are Not With Governor Bradley's Position.

THEY WANT AN EXTRA SESSION.

Washington, Dec. 10.—The air is full of talk of Cuba, and it will be a hard matter to hold congress in check. It will declare for Cuban independence if this keeps up.

Senator Cameron yesterday introduced the following resolution:

"Resolved, By the senate and house of representatives that the independence of the republic of Cuba be, and the same is, hereby acknowledged by the United States of America.

"Resolved, That the United States shall use its friendly offices with the government of Spain to bring to a close the war between Spain and Cuba."

Mr. Mills followed the Cameron resolution at once with the following resolution:

"Joint resolution directing the president of the United States to take possession of the island of Cuba and hold it until its inhabitants can institute such government as they may wish, and organize and arm such forces as may be necessary to protect them against invasion."

The Mills resolution was referred to the Foreign Relations committee.

BLACKBURN PLEASED.

But Republicans Not Pleased With Bradley's Position.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Senator Blackburn is greatly pleased over the position of Governor Bradley in calling an extra session. He confidently believes that he will be elected by the next legislature, if no extra session is held.

Congressman Evans and other Republican members from Kentucky are very anxious for an extra session and are kicking at the governor's delay.

A Big Damage Suit. Anderson, Ind., Dec. 10.—A sensational damage suit for $100,000 has been filed against Major Doxey, of this city, by Miss Mattie Feland, alleging seduction and abduction. Major Doxey is a millionaire.

Fields and Atkins on Trial. Barboursville, Ky., Dec. 10.—The celebrated case of Fields and Atkins for the murder of Judge Combs in Perry county is on trial here. This is their second trial, having been sentenced to life imprisonment on the first.

WANTS $2,000.

Suit for Damages Against the People's Line.

Mrs. Nancy Bailey Claims She Was Injured On a Car.

Mrs. Nancy Bailey, of Rowland town, today filed suit against the People's Street Railway Company for $2000 damages, for alleged injuries received sometime since near Third and Court streets.

According to the petition the plaintiff was inside the car waiting for it to start up when another car came up in the rear, collided with it, and threw her upon her feet, inflicting injuries from which she says she has suffered ever since. She asks for $2000 damages.

VIGILANTS

Make Things Lively Down in Marshall County.

Arrest Several Suspected Negroes and Give Them Ten Day in Which to Leave.

A posse of men all of Marshall county, went to Burkholder's mill on Clark's River, about seven miles from Paducah, night before last, and captured John Thomas, colored, suspected of being the assailant of Miss Lee Hampton, at "Squire" Johnson's home near Sharp a few nights since. He was made to give an account of himself, and to do it quiet. He furnished a resume of his action for the past week, and this being satisfactory he was released and given ten days to leave the county or suffer death as a penalty.

Fifteen men then rode to the home of Frank Taylor, colored, at Sharp, and the only other colored man of the neighborhood, and gave them ten days also in which to leave the neighborhood on pain of death. The vigilantes wore masks and meant business. It is said that the colored people have gone, and that there is great excitement in that section of the country.

The posse was at last accounts after a colored man who crossed the Tennessee river in the vicinity of the attempted robbery or rape, which ever the residents choose to believe it was. Some believe that Miss Hampton's assailant meant robbery, but the people of that locality have long nurtured a strong antipathy to the colored race, and may be using the occurrence as a pretext to get rid of what few colored people there are in the vicinity.

MAIL CAR BURNED.

Southern Mail Out of Paducah Probably Lost.

Big Fire at Trimble, Tenn., This Morning at 4 O'clock.

A disastrous blaze that may entail, so far as now can be learned, the loss of thousands of dollars, as well as an in comprehensionable amount of correspondence, occurred this morning about 4 o'clock.

When the "cannon ball," No. 103, from Louisville to Memphis, which passed through Paducah over the L. C. & N. 2 o'clock this morning reached Trimble, Tenn., it was discovered to be on fire. How it caught could not be learned, or at least was not reported to the dispatcher's office here, but the flames completely enveloped the coach and at Newbern it was set afire and there burned down to the journals.

Mail Agent Sam Harris escaped without injury, and managed to throw off a portion of the mail, but the greater part of it was reduced to ashes. The loss to the government cannot be estimated. In the mail car was all the southern mail from Paducah—all that had been posted from noon yesterday until midnight—and how much of this was burned cannot at present be told. Clerks Fred Ashton, of the local office, says that there was quite a great deal of mail out of Paducah on the train, and in action there was mail from all points between Louisville and Fulton. There was nothing left of the car but the wheels and springs. An effort was made to reach a place where water could be procured, but to no avail.

The fire probably caught from a hitchcock.

Weather Observer Pell Stricken This Morning.

Is Now Better, However—Mr. C. White Dangerously Ill.

Weather observer Clegg. Pell was stricken with something like paralysis this morning about 8 o'clock down near the wharf boat. He was driving a nail when his hand became numb, and he found he could not hold it. Soon his left side became paralyzed and his feet condition became discovered by several near by. He was taken to the boat store, but could not be done for him. Mr. Pell is quite an old man, but soon recovered and went home. His affection was only temporary.

Mr. R. C. White, of Eighth and Clay, the well known broker, is dangerously ill at present. He was taken several months ago, and has never recovered, his condition having rapidly worsened during the past few days, but is not so bad as reported.

Frank Hall Arrested by Chief Hall.

Confesses to Stealing a Diamond and Other Things.

Frank Hall, a colored boy about 12 years of age, who resides at the extreme west end of Madison street, was arrested by Chief Hall last night on a charge of grand larceny, and held over by Judge Sanders this morning.

About three weeks ago a fine diamond ring and an amethyst ring and a pair of $7 shoes were stolen from the residence of Mrs. E. W. Vaughan on North Seventh street, where the boy was employed. The master was reported to the police, and Chief Hall began investigating the case.

A night or two ago a small amount of money was stolen from the pockets of Messrs. Ed. Rivers and Ed. Vaughan. Among the change was a nickel turned up and suspicion rested on the boy, who was arrested on the Court street by the chief. The nickel was found in his pocket, and when he realized he was detected confessed. The rings, which belonged to Miss Mildred Vaughan, were found in the possession of a sister of the boy at his home on Madison street.

This morning he confessed and was held over to the grand jury.

Judge Sanders stated, however, that it was doubtful whether the boy could be indicted, on account of his youthfulness.

FIVE YEARS EACH.

Heavy Sentences Get Smith and Abbott.

THEY STOLE SAW LOGS.

Two Rape Friends Indicted—Chas. Johnson on Three Counts for Cow Stealing.

COURT TAKES UP OTHER CASES.

Ed Smith and Thomas Abbott, the two young men placed on trial in the circuit court yesterday on a charge of stealing $57 worth of logs and a $15 skiff from Clements Bros., of Mechanicsburg, were today sentenced to five years each in the penitentiary. Neither exhibited a shadow of emotion when the verdict was read, which seemed to surprise the spectators, owing to the remarkable appearance of the young men.

Yesterday afternoon when the Commonwealth insisted on introducing evidence the defendants withdrew their plea of guilty, and decided to contest the case. The sentence is a severe one, but the guilt of the accused was clear.

They were arrested by Marshal

George Crouch, of Metropolis, the day after the theft. One attempted to escape through the city, and the other by crossing the river in a skiff.

The grand jury returned five indictments.

Three were against Chas. Johnson, colored, charged with cow stealing.

Frank Jones, colored, was indicted for committing rape upon his sister-in-law, Alice Mitchell.

George Weakley, a colored hack driver, was indicted on a charge of outraging a woman of Brooklyn near the decline, on this side of the river.

This afternoon the court took up the case of Harrison Maxwell, charged with maliciously cutting Martin Davis.

A BEAUTIFUL OPENING.

Noah's Ark Makes an Attractive Display.

Music Enlivens the Occasion and Big Crowds Throng Their Store.

Weather Observer Pell Stricken This Morning.

Is Now Better, However—Mr. C. White Dangerously Ill.

Weather observer Clegg. Pell was stricken with something like paralysis this morning about 8 o'clock down near the wharf boat. He was driving a nail when his hand became numb, and he found he could not hold it. Soon his left side became paralyzed and his feet condition became discovered by several near by. He was taken to the boat store, but could not be done for him. Mr. Pell is quite an old man, but soon recovered and went home. His affection was only temporary.

Mr. R. C. White, of Eighth and Clay, the well known broker, is dangerously ill at present. He was taken several months ago, and has never recovered, his condition having rapidly worsened during the past few days, but is not so bad as reported.

Frank Hall Arrested by Chief Hall.

Confesses to Stealing a Diamond and Other Things.

Frank Hall, a colored boy about 12 years of age, who resides at the extreme west end of Madison street, was arrested by Chief Hall last night on a charge of grand larceny, and held over by Judge Sanders this morning.

About three weeks ago a fine diamond ring and an amethyst ring and a pair of $7 shoes were stolen from the residence of Mrs. E. W. Vaughan on North Seventh street, where the boy was employed. The master was reported to the police, and Chief Hall began investigating the case.

A night or two ago a small amount of money was stolen from the pockets of Messrs. Ed. Rivers and Ed. Vaughan. Among the change was a nickel turned up and suspicion rested on the boy, who was arrested on the Court street by the chief. The nickel was found in his pocket, and when he realized he was detected confessed. The rings, which belonged to Miss Mildred Vaughan, were found in the possession of a sister of the boy at his home on Madison street.

This morning he confessed and was held over to the grand jury.

Judge Sanders stated, however, that it was doubtful whether the boy could be indicted, on account of his youthfulness.

He Did Not Deny Killing Ben Ladd.

The Notorious Murder Case to Be Finished Today.

The murder case against John Lemley and others at Metropolis for killing Ben Ladd, is progressing, and slowly, but surely will be finished today.

The women in the case all swore that Lemley did the killing despite the rejoins that he denied it before the grand jury. Lemley himself was out on the witness stand late yesterday afternoon, and it is understood he acknowledged to committing the deed, but claimed it was to save the life of the Laddie woman. The case will be given to the jury today.

IN JACKSON.

Higley, the Baking Powder Man, Supposed to Be There.

Last by Telegraph.

General Thomas, a prominent merchant of Denver, Col., died today of heart disease.

Scarface Charley, a noted Indian, died today at Seura, Mo.

Cliff Garnett killed two negroes to day at a hog scalding near Clarksville, Tenn.

powder received a letter from "W. A. Eckwell," dated at Jackson, asking for lowest rate on 200 pounds of the baking powder. He stated that he desired that much, and if the figure was satisfactory, he could use much more, and would advertise it in every state in the Union.

Mr. Young chanced to have a tag upon which Higley had written an address, and by comparing the two perceived at once that the letter and address were written by one and the same man. He of course paid no attention to the communication, not desiring to become involved in any "fake."

HEAD FIRST.

Mr. George McGhee, of the County, Seriously Hurt.

Wagon Collided With a Transfer—Unconscious for Several Hours.

George McGhee, of near Maxon's Mill, was the victim of a serious accident at 5 o'clock last evening. He came to the city to drive some hogs and started home late in the afternoon.

Near Sixth and Jefferson he turned to get something in the rear of the wagon, and while his face was turned the wagon, which was a small spring vehicle, collided with one of Livingston's big transfer wagons. McGhee was thrown out and struck on his head and shoulders, being rendered unconscious by the severe shock.

Dr. T. E. White was summoned and found him in an unconscious condition. He was given restoratives, but could give no account of himself, had forgotten his name and where he lived. He was provided with pillows by neighbors and remained in that condition for some time on the sidewalk, near the scene of the accident.

Sheriff Holland finally passed and recognized the man, informing the doctor that his brother, Mr. W. B. McGhee, resided at 1214 Trimble street.

He was carried there in the doctor's buggy, and remained in a semi-conscious state until about 10 o'clock. He is reported as somewhat better today.

They were arrested by Marshal

George McGhee, of near Maxon's Mill, was the victim of a serious accident at 5 o'clock last evening. He came to the city to drive some hogs and started home late in the afternoon.

Near Sixth and Jefferson he turned to get something in the rear of the wagon, and while his face was turned the wagon, which was a small spring vehicle, collided with one of Livingston's big transfer wagons. McGhee was thrown out and struck on his head and shoulders, being rendered unconscious by the severe shock.

Dr. T. E. White was summoned and found him in an unconscious condition. He was given restoratives, but could give no account of himself, had forgotten his name and where he lived. He was provided with pillows by neighbors and remained in that condition for some time on the sidewalk, near the scene of the accident.

Sheriff Holland finally passed and recognized the man, informing the doctor that his brother, Mr. W. B. McGhee, resided at 1214 Trimble street.

He was carried there in the doctor's buggy, and remained in a semi-conscious state until about 10 o'clock. He is reported as somewhat better today.

They were arrested by Marshal

George McGhee, of near Maxon's Mill, was the victim of a serious accident at 5 o'clock last evening. He came to the city to drive some hogs and started home late in the afternoon.

Near Sixth and Jefferson he turned to get something in the rear of the wagon, and while his face was turned the wagon, which was a small spring vehicle, collided with one of Livingston's big transfer wagons. McGhee was thrown out and struck on his head and shoulders, being rendered unconscious by the severe shock.

Dr. T. E. White was summoned and found him in an unconscious condition. He was given restoratives, but could give no account of himself, had forgotten his name and where he lived. He was provided with pillows by neighbors and remained in that condition for some time on the sidewalk, near the scene of the accident.

Sheriff Holland finally passed and recognized the man, informing the doctor that his brother, Mr. W. B. McGhee, resided at 1214 Trimble street.

He was carried there in the doctor's buggy, and remained in a semi-conscious state until about 10 o'clock. He is reported as somewhat better today.

They were arrested by Marshal

George McGhee, of near Maxon's Mill, was the victim of a serious accident at 5 o'clock last evening. He came to the city to drive some hogs and started home late in the afternoon.

Near Sixth and Jefferson he turned to get something in the rear of the wagon, and while his face was turned the wagon, which was a small spring vehicle, collided with one of Livingston's big transfer wagons. McGhee was thrown out and struck on his head and shoulders, being rendered unconscious by the severe shock.

Dr. T. E. White was summoned and found him in an unconscious condition. He was given restoratives, but could give no account of himself, had forgotten his name and where he lived. He was provided with pillows by neighbors and remained in that condition for some time on the sidewalk, near the scene of the accident.

THE PADUCAH DAILY SUN.
Published every afternoon, except Sunday, by THE SUN PUBLISHING COMPANY. INCORPORATED IN

P. M. FORD, Pres. W. P. SMITH, Vice Pres. C. C. THOMAS, Secy. W. P. PASTOR, Treasurer. P. H. HODGES, Manager. W. M. FORD, J. H. SMITH, E. W. SMITH, J. E. Williams, J. J. DORAN.

THE DAILY SUN
Will give special attention to all local happenings of interest in Paducah and vicinity, not neglecting general news, which will be given as fully as space will permit without regard to expense.

THE WEEKLY SUN
Is devoted to the interests of the people of Paducah and will at all times be most particular in selecting the news, events, points of political affairs and topics, while it will be a fearless and tireless exponent of the principles and teachings of the National Republican party.

ADVERTISING.

For advertising, send to the Paducah Standard, Office, Standard Block, 115 North Fourth Street.

Subscription Rate.
Daily, per annum $ 4.50
Daily, Six months 2.25
Daily, One month 40
Daily, per week 10 cents
Weekly, per annum in advance 1.00
Specimen copies free

THURSDAY, DEC. 10, 1896.

It is now positively announced that an extra session of Kentucky's legislature will be called on — — —

The report of Maeo's death of yesterday leads to the legitimate conclusion that Maeo has won a great Cuban victory.

There have been no new tips for McKinley's cabinet within the last twenty-four hours. This is an unpardonable omission.

The silver Republican senators will flock by themselves; but the world will move just the same. Such grand stand plays as that, are the only thing the silverites can now do.

The trusts seem to be having a hard time. The Wire Nail Trust and the Bessemer Steel Trust have recently gone to pieces and the indications are that the Window Glass Trust will follow suit.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND's messaging effectively settles one point. There will be no tariff legislation this session. He makes it very clear that he has not changed his position on the tariff question and the inference is obvious that the Dingley bill would be vetoed should it pass congress.

No cause for alarm.

The refusal of the silverite Senators who bolted McKinley to take part in the Republican caucus will not distract their party. McKinley was elected against their opposition, and probably Republican legislation will be in McKinley's term for the first time since the silver question came up in portentous shape. The Republican party has been shaped to take an honest, courageous and consistent stand on the money issue. The party took that sort of a stand in the campaign, and will maintain it henceforth in the face of threats and blandishments from any source.

Election Frauds.
Navy in, Too, Too, Too.

The truth is that the violation of the election laws and the fraudulent election practices which are carried on so notoriously in some of the counties are matters which should concern Democrats quite as much as the citizens whose votes are wrongfully manipulated. Every election fraud, no matter by whom committed, is a blow at the integrity of the ship, and is a sin against organized society. It is one species of iniquity which strikes at the foundation of good order. The outrages perpetrated in Fayette county are as much an offense against the Democrats of the state as against the Republicans, and unless sincere and law-loving Democrats manifest a willingness to rebuke such outrages, our state will suffer irredeemable injury.

The smallest bicycle.

The smallest known city, lie in the world, or, rather, the smallest pair of bicycles, is owned by Count Magri, of Rome, who gained fame, and, incidentally, a fortune, by marrying the widow of Tom Thumb. The Count is exactly thirty inches in height, and his spouse is two inches shorter. For some time they have been familiar to Roman citizens, riding in a tiny carriage drawn by two diminutive Shetland ponies. The turnout was a gift from Queen Victoria. The Count and his wife go the bicycle craze, and gave an order for two machines to a Boston firm of manufacturers. The weight of the wheels is ten pounds each, and the diameter of the front and rear wheel is ten inches. The machines cost $250 apiece, and are built for rough work. It is no unusual thing for the Count to wheel fifteen or twenty miles, which is equal to fifty miles by a man of ordinary stature.

A CHANCE FOR IMPROVEMENT.
While the city council is considering ways and means whereby the city of Paducah may be improved in its administrative and sanitary affairs, it should not be forgotten that the appearance of the city is also of great importance. The vacant block on the river between Broadway and Court streets still looms up in all its unloveliness.

The first thing that greets the stranger who arrives by river is a huge bill board adorned with patriotic posters representing the stage villain in the act of abducting the innocent maid whose troth is plighted to his hated rival, or gaudy pictures of gay and festive actresses in abbreviated warm weather garments. Not far away are various and sundry remnants of engines and machinery valuable only for services rendered in the past. Weeds, rocks and groups of crap shooting ingresses also abound in more or less profusion.

A TAX ON BEER.
Kansas City (Mo.) Times, (cont.)

If the Republicans are sincere in their desire to increase the revenues of the government, they will accept the proposal to raise the tax on beer. The present tax of 2½ cents a barrel yields over $30,000,000. To increase it, as suggested, to 50 cents a barrel would yield about as much more. The present tax is less than one-fourth of a cent a glass. It is absurd to suppose that doubling it would result in raising the price of a glass of beer to the consumer. Customs taxes that at 5 cents, and there it would remain. The beer tax might not fall on the consumers. Even if it did, only the exact amount of the tax would be paid by the consumers, and it would probably not injure them. Not all the people are consumers of beer, but everybody wears clothing. Is it, then, more just to levy a tax on beer or clothing? And if the tax on beer would reduce the size of beer glasses one-twentieth, is that not preferable to raising the price of clothing 20 per cent?

PAYING BETS.

Humer & Nolan Declare That McKinley Gets the State.

From the Louisville Post.

AN OUTRAGEOUS PARDON.

Gov. Atigeld, of Illinois, commuted the life sentence of Henry Schwartz who, together with Newton Watt, was convicted in 1886 of murdering an express messenger on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad and plundering the car. Schwartz will be a free man next spring. The murder was one of the foulest ever committed in the state of Illinois. Schwartz has already served ten years of his life sentence. Gov. Atigeld assigns as a reason for his action that the man was in a fit of going insane, and also that his health is most rapidly failing.

The object of giving a man a life sentence is to confine him in prison during the remainder of his life, and thus when death comes it shall find him in his cell and clad in stripes. It death soon releases the convict it is but a mercy to him. But the idea of many go-betweens is just the reverse. The last thought, when a convict becomes dangerously ill, is to give him a pardon, that he may die outside of the prison walls, while the very object of his sentence is that he should die in his prison cell. There is nothing strange in the death of a convict. A criminal is destined not for the effect upon him, but because of the restraining influence it may have on other possible criminals.

A life sentence finally prohibits one criminal from ever harming his fellow man again; but, it does more, it is a daily object lesson to the vicious members of society and acts as a protection to property and human life.

This portion of Schwartz is a companion act to the pardoning of the Haymarket anarchists, and is another bid for popular exeration by the anarchist governor of Illinois.

The fraud which is now generally believed was perpetrated in declar- ing Sharkey the winner in the recent pugilistic encounter at San Francisco will have the effect of further disgusting people with prize fighting. The whole scheme is, always a money-making affair and now that the referee's decisions are likely to be influenced by fraud public interest will turn to something else. One secret of the popularity of football is the obvious fact that the game is a genuine contest and is perfectly fair throughout.

The action of President Cleveland in sending to congress Secretary of State Olney's report on the Cuban affairs shows that he considers the situation very grave and that he desires congress and the country to be well informed. It is very evident that the president regards the prospects of a rupture with Spain as among the probabilities of the near future. With that idea in his mind he has carefully avoided any inflammatory utterances in his annual message. The disapp'ntment that the country felt at Mr. Cleveland's well- guarded statements will in the end give way to admiration for his moderation and caution. All the time that this government can gain without prejudicing the success of the Cuban rebellion will make our interference all the more effective if a clash should come. The people of this country desire to see Cuba free and that desire will undoubtedly be voiced by a joint resolution at this session of congress.

A CHANCE FOR IMPROVEMENT.

While the city council is considering ways and means whereby the city of Paducah may be improved in its administrative and sanitary affairs, it should not be forgotten that the appearance of the city is also of great importance. The vacant block on the river between Broadway and Court streets still looms up in all its unloveliness.

The first thing that greets the stranger who arrives by river is a huge bill board adorned with patriotic posters representing the stage villain in the act of abducting the innocent maid whose troth is plighted to his hated rival, or gaudy pictures of gay and festive actresses in abbreviated warm weather garments. Not far away are various and sundry remnants of engines and machinery valuable only for services rendered in the past. Weeds, rocks and groups of crap shooting ingresses also abound in more or less profusion.

A TAX ON BEER.
Kansas City (Mo.) Times, (cont.)

If the Republicans are sincere in their desire to increase the revenues of the government, they will accept the proposal to raise the tax on beer. The present tax of 2½ cents a barrel yields over $30,000,000. To increase it, as suggested, to 50 cents a barrel would yield about as much more. The present tax is less than one-fourth of a cent a glass. It is absurd to suppose that doubling it would result in raising the price of a glass of beer to the consumer. Customs taxes that at 5 cents, and there it would remain. The beer tax might not fall on the consumers. Even if it did, only the exact amount of the tax would be paid by the consumers, and it would probably not injure them. Not all the people are consumers of beer, but everybody wears clothing. Is it, then, more just to levy a tax on beer or clothing?

And if the tax on beer would reduce the size of beer glasses one-twentieth, is that not preferable to raising the price of clothing 20 per cent?

PAYING BETS.

Humer & Nolan Declare That McKinley Gets the State.

From the Louisville Post.

ADVERTISING.

For advertising, send to the Paducah Standard, Office, Standard Block, 115 North Fourth Street.

Subscription Rate.

Daily, per annum $ 4.50
Daily, Six months 2.25
Daily, One month 40
Daily, per week 10 cents
Weekly, per annum in advance 1.00
Specimen copies free

THURSDAY, DEC. 10, 1896.

It is now positively announced that an extra session of Kentucky's legislature will be called on — — —

The report of Maeo's death of yesterday leads to the legitimate conclusion that Maeo has won a great Cuban victory.

There have been no new tips for McKinley's cabinet within the last twenty-four hours. This is an unpardonable omission.

The silver Republican senators will flock by themselves; but the world will move just the same. Such grand stand plays as that, are the only thing the silverites can now do.

The trusts seem to be having a hard time. The Wire Nail Trust and the Bessemer Steel Trust have recently gone to pieces and the indications are that the Window Glass Trust will follow suit.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND's messaging effectively settles one point. There will be no tariff legislation this session. He makes it very clear that he has not changed his position on the tariff question and the inference is obvious that the Dingley bill would be vetoed should it pass congress.

No cause for alarm.

The refusal of the silverite Senators who bolted McKinley to take part in the Republican caucus will not distract their party. McKinley was elected against their opposition, and probably Republican legislation will be in McKinley's term for the first time since the silver question came up in portentous shape. The Republican party has been shaped to take an honest, courageous and consistent stand on the money issue. The party took that sort of a stand in the campaign, and will maintain it henceforth in the face of threats and blandishments from any source.

Election Frauds.
Navy in, Too, Too, Too.

The truth is that the violation of the election laws and the fraudulent election practices which are carried on so notoriously in some of the counties are matters which should concern Democrats quite as much as the citizens whose votes are wrongfully manipulated. Every election fraud, no matter by whom committed, is a blow at the integrity of the ship, and is a sin against organized society. It is one species of iniquity which strikes at the foundation of good order. The outrages perpetrated in Fayette county are as much an offense against the Republicans, and unless sincere and law-loving Democrats manifest a willingness to rebuke such outrages, our state will suffer irredeemable injury.

The smallest bicycle.

The smallest known city, lie in the world, or, rather, the smallest pair of bicycles, is owned by Count Magri, of Rome, who gained fame, and, incidentally, a fortune, by marrying the widow of Tom Thumb. The Count is exactly thirty inches in height, and his spouse is two inches shorter. For some time they have been familiar to Roman citizens, riding in a tiny carriage drawn by two diminutive Shetland ponies. The turnout was a gift from Queen Victoria. The Count and his wife go the bicycle craze, and gave an order for two machines to a Boston firm of manufacturers. The weight of the wheels is ten pounds each, and the diameter of the front and rear wheel is ten inches. The machines cost $250 apiece, and are built for rough work. It is no unusual thing for the Count to wheel fifteen or twenty miles, which is equal to fifty miles by a man of ordinary stature.

A CHANCE FOR IMPROVEMENT.
While the city council is considering ways and means whereby the city of Paducah may be improved in its administrative and sanitary affairs, it should not be forgotten that the appearance of the city is also of great importance. The vacant block on the river between Broadway and Court streets still looms up in all its unloveliness.

The first thing that greets the stranger who arrives by river is a huge bill board adorned with patriotic posters representing the stage villain in the act of abducting the innocent maid whose troth is plighted to his hated rival, or gaudy pictures of gay and festive actresses in abbreviated warm weather garments. Not far away are various and sundry remnants of engines and machinery valuable only for services rendered in the past. Weeds, rocks and groups of crap shooting ingresses also abound in more or less profusion.

THE UNION CENTRAL LIFE INS. CO.

OF CINCINNATI, OHIO,

Commenced business in 1867. This company gives more attention to making good results to its policy-holders, than to piling up an enormous new business, and from the standpoint of safety and economy is the most successfully managed company in the business.

D. JOHNSON.

American-German Bank Bldg. Gen. Agent.

RING UP TELEPHONE 118.

P. F. LALLY

—WHEN YOU WANT—

Staple and Fancy Groceries, Fresh Meats of All Kinds, New Canned Goods, New Crop Molasses, etc.

Home Made Lard a Specialty.

Cor. 9th and Trimble Sts.

ARTISTIC PHOTOGRAPHY AT LOW PRICES.

We Make a Specialty of High Grade Work.

The lowest place in town to get first-class PHOTOGRAPHS for the Holidays is at BRUCE'S STUDIO.

112 S. Third Street.

THE CITY BAKERY

Having baked a large lot of very fine

FRUIT CAKES.

We can offer you same for less money than you can make at home. We also have a fine line of all kinds of BREAD AND CAKES.

F. KIRCHHOFF.

118 SOUTH SECOND STREET.

A SIZZLING SPOT.

Yuma is the Most Torrid Town in the United States.

Temperature Exceeding One Hundred Degrees for Days at a Time—Deserts That Make It Necessary to Guard Desperate Convicts.

Eastern people who prize about 60° terms and flee to the mountains or seashore upon the approach of a brief period when the temperature is among the 90's should consider the case of a town where the temperature from about the middle of June to early October ranges all the way from 90 to 120 degrees in the shade, and occasionally goes to 123 degrees for a few hours, suggests a Yuma (Ariz.) correspondent. What would they think of a temperature for a full month of less than 97, or two weeks at a time when the temperature has varied from 103 to 115, and of a week when the thermometer has stood at over 112 in the shade?

This is what the residents of this quaint old town of Yuma experience regularly each summer for far this season. Yuma has had two spells of weather when the mercury climbed up to 117 in the shade every morning for a few successive days, and descended to 90 to 100 at night. From June 10 to June 14 the daily temperature here ranged from 107 to 114. From June 18 to June 21 inclusive, the temperature on each afternoon would go as high as 117 in the shade.

All conditions seem to unite to make Yuma the hot summer spot it is. It is located in a kind of basin on the edge of the lazy, muddy Colorado river, which meanders through desert sands and adobe soil down to the gulf of California. Away to the west, across the Colorado desert, several thousand square miles in area. It is so merciless, ghostly and fierce a desert waste that few dare cross it by wagon or on foot in the summer months, and in winter only spring travelers are careful to be accompanied by a companion or two, and supplied with an abundance of drinking water and food.

Even summer venturous miners seek their living in trying to cross the desert by being overtaken by a sand storm or weakened unto death by the dreadful heat. To the north there are vast plains and uplands of barren, sun-baked adobe soil, and a peculiar formation of lava and soft granite, the remains of numerous extinct volcanoes. This area absorbs the sun's heat by day and distributes it by night. To the east are millions of acres that are the next thing to absolute desert, where nothing grows except by irrigation, and then only when there is no one to care for it. The soil is little or no use, and there is little or no unnecessary movement about town at midday. Railroad brakemen wear leather mittens so that they may handle coupling pins and links. The chinks and glassware in the homes and at the little hotel are as warm on any day in summer as the sand that just come out of very warm water and wind. The sun is unbearably hot. When one puts his hands on a wall in a house on a hot day it feels like the walls that surround a baker's oven. All houses and cows here are kept under roofs or sheds at midday when the mercury is ranging high. Y. Sun.

Death on the Lively Flea.

As a protection against the fleas that are well-known to attack men and dogs sometimes introduce into your home an entomologist to advise you of such pets to provide a rug for them to sleep on

EVERYBODY WANTS
CHRISTMAS GOODS.

At no time in the round year is this store so attractive to you as now. Full preparation has been made to fit your gift-giving needs. The store has donned its holiday attire and bids you kindly welcome.

Holiday Handkerchiefs.

We have more than doubled our stock and selling space and shall make a bold push to fully double the sales in handkerchiefs over any previous season.

Men's hemstitched lawn handkerchiefs, good size and quality, for 50¢ each.

Men's all-linen hemstitched handkerchiefs at 15¢ and 25¢.

Women's hemstitched and embroidered linen cambric handkerchiefs at 25¢ each.

Finer grade, daintiest embroidered and real lace handkerchiefs, from 50 cents to $1.00 each.

A Pair of Kid Gloves

Makes an acceptable Christmas present. This department is now at its best. Here are a few hints from the big stock.

Men's lined dog skin gloves at 50¢ the pair.

Misses' five hook kid gloves at $1 the pair.

The new green, ox-blood and other popular shades in " ladies' " style heavy stitched kid gloves at $1.00.

White, black and delicate shades in best kid gloves for $1.50 the pair.

Dolls! Dolls! Dolls!

Enough to gladden the hearts of all the little tots in town. The big display is attracting crowds of grown people as well as children. You can satisfy the little ones' craving at a small cost if you buy here. Just four items out of many:

Jointed dolls with pretty faces and curly hair for 10 cents.

Bisque headed, fancy dressed dolls for 25 cents.

Kid body, bisque head dolls that open and close their eyes for 32¢.

Silky haired, jointed bodied, bisque headed, prettily dressed dolls for 40¢ each.

Handsome Dress Goods.

Just to encourage sensible gift-giving and to advertise our dress goods department at this season, we cut a generous slice from their cost from now until Christmas. Nothing nicer for a gift than a handsome dress for wife, mother, daughter and sister.

Stylish silk and wool mixtures in checks, stripes and chameleon effects, for 49¢ the yard.

Best heavy black and navy blue cheviots and brocade mohairs, 50 inches wide, for 49¢, the regular price is 75¢ the yard.

Exclusive novelties in handsome dress patterns at holiday prices.

Books.

No more appropriate gift than a book. We've bought a lot of them and they must be sold by Xmas eve. Books of all kinds to suit all sorts of tastes, all elegantly bound in silk velum cloth. The works of authors of world-wide repute at the uniform price of 19¢, never before offered for less than 25¢.

Sterling Silver Novelties.

These pretty trifles are in great demand for gifts and we are selling them at prices to ready pur-chasers, every piece bears the sterling stamp.

Short waist sets—studs, collar and cuff buttons for 49¢.

Pocket knives, best steel blades, for 49¢ and 69¢.

Elaborately carved scissors, three sizes, for $1.49, $1.69 and $1.79.

Shoe Department.

In our shoe department you will find us abreast of the times with the style, quality and price. In our purchase for fall we have tried to combine, so far as practicable, handsome goods with quality and are therefore prepared to show you stylish footwear and quality combined.

We Offer.

Child's kid or grain, 5 to 8, 50¢. Better one, same size, 69¢. Child's kid S. L. tip, 8 to 11, 75¢. Misses' Sam 1/2 to 2, $1.00.

KANGAROO CALF.

This is an elegant shoe for school use. 8 1/2 to 11 at $1.00, and 11 1/2 to 12 at $1.25.

LITTLE GENTS' LACE.

We show an extra good shoe, size 9 1/2 to 13 1/2, at $1.25.

BUNKER HILL SCHOOL SHOE.

We have sold this shoe for ten years, and as evidence from service given in the past are good wearers. $8 to 11, $11 to 2, $1.25.

Preached to a Good Crowd.

Editor W. S. Smith, of the Indiana department of the Christian Guide, preached to a good congregation at the Tenth Christian church last night.

There is nothing so good for the babies as colds of the children. It cures croup, whooping cough, cold in the head and gives sweet, refreshing sleep. It is pleasantly sweet to the taste. Any child will take it and ask for more. Good druggists sell it. For sale by Oehlschaefer & Walker.

Read W. W. Kimball & Co., 423 Broadway. Telephone No. 32.

DEATH AT BENTON.

Mrs. J. W. Dycus Dies of Congestion.

Read W. W. Kimball & Co., 423 Broadway. Telephone No. 32.

Lost manhood fully restored. Worth $50 a bottle, but costs only $1 a bottle. One bottle guaranteed to do the work. No cure, no pain.

RONCADO TONIC CO., 108 S. Third St.

A hustler who uses words soliciting.

Wanted

7d3 Manager Special Sale.

Club Meetings.

The Magazine Club is meeting with Miss Julia Scott this afternoon, at Eighth and Madison.

The Afternoon Cinques Club postponed its meeting until next week.

Campbell-Mulvihill Coal Co.

210 S. Third Street. Telephone No. 13.

Pittsburgh and McHenry Coal, The Best on the Market.

Metropolis Clippings for Kindling.

Mr. Fred Greif,

PERSONALS.

The well known baker lately of H. Gockel's, has bought the stock and fixtures of J. H. Thompson, the bakery on

Men's all-linen hemstitched handkerchiefs at 15¢ and 25¢.

Women's hemstitched and embroidered linen cambric handkerchiefs at 25¢ each.

Finer grade, daintiest embroidered and real lace handkerchiefs, from 50 cents to $1.00 each.

A Pair of Kid Gloves

Makes an acceptable Christmas present. This department is now at its best. Here are a few hints from the big stock.

Men's lined dog skin gloves at 50¢ the pair.

Misses' five hook kid gloves at $1 the pair.

The new green, ox-blood and other popular shades in " ladies' " style heavy stitched kid gloves at $1.00.

White, black and delicate shades in best kid gloves for $1.50 the pair.

Dolls! Dolls! Dolls!

Enough to gladden the hearts of all the little tots in town. The big display is attracting crowds of grown people as well as children. You can satisfy the little ones' craving at a small cost if you buy here. Just four items out of many:

Jointed dolls with pretty faces and curly hair for 10 cents.

Bisque headed, fancy dressed dolls for 25 cents.

Kid body, bisque head dolls that open and close their eyes for 32¢.

Silky haired, jointed bodied, bisque headed, prettily dressed dolls for 40¢ each.

Handsome Dress Goods.

Just to encourage sensible gift-giving and to advertise our dress goods department at this season, we cut a generous slice from their cost from now until Christmas. Nothing nicer for a gift than a handsome dress for wife, mother, daughter and sister.

20 Papers for 5 cents, suitable for wrapping or to go under carpets, at this office.

FOR RENT—Furnished front room; centrally located. Address X, care Sun.

Sunday School Supper.

The Sunday school class of Mrs. Rivers will give an oyster supper at the Christian church tomorrow night for the benefit of the church.

Books.

No more appropriate gift than a book. We've bought a lot of them and they must be sold by Xmas eve.

Books of all kinds to suit all sorts of tastes, all elegantly bound in silk velum cloth. The works of authors of world-wide repute at the uniform price of 19¢, never before offered for less than 25¢.

Sterling Silver Novelties.

These pretty trifles are in great demand for gifts and we are selling them at prices to ready pur-chasers, every piece bears the sterling stamp.

Short waist sets—studs, collar and cuff buttons for 49¢.

Pocket knives, best steel blades, for 49¢ and 69¢.

Elaborately carved scissors, three sizes, for $1.49, $1.69 and $1.79.

Shoe Department.

In our shoe department you will find us abreast of the times with the style, quality and price. In our purchase for fall we have tried to combine, so far as practicable, handsome goods with quality and are therefore prepared to show you stylish footwear and quality combined.

We Offer.

Child's kid or grain, 5 to 8, 50¢. Better one, same size, 69¢. Child's kid S. L. tip, 8 to 11, 75¢. Misses' Sam 1/2 to 2, $1.00.

KANGAROO CALF.

This is an elegant shoe for school use. 8 1/2 to 11 at $1.00, and 11 1/2 to 12 at $1.25.

LITTLE GENTS' LACE.

We show an extra good shoe, size 9 1/2 to 13 1/2, at $1.25.

Club Meetings.

The Magazine Club is meeting with Miss Julia Scott this afternoon, at Eighth and Madison.

The Afternoon Cinques Club postponed its meeting until next week.

Wanted

7d3 Manager Special Sale.

Club Meetings.

The Magazine Club is meeting with Miss Julia Scott this afternoon, at Eighth and Madison.

The Afternoon Cinques Club postponed its meeting until next week.

Wanted

7d3 Manager Special Sale.

Club Meetings.

The Magazine Club is meeting with Miss Julia Scott this afternoon, at Eighth and Madison.

The Afternoon Cinques Club postponed its meeting until next week.

Wanted

7d3 Manager Special Sale.

Club Meetings.

The Magazine Club is meeting with Miss Julia Scott this afternoon, at Eighth and Madison.

The Afternoon Cinques Club postponed its meeting until next week.

Wanted

7d3 Manager Special Sale.

Club Meetings.

The Magazine Club is meeting with Miss Julia Scott this afternoon, at Eighth and Madison.

The Afternoon Cinques Club postponed its meeting until next week.

Wanted

7d3 Manager Special Sale.

Club Meetings.

The Magazine Club is meeting with Miss Julia Scott this afternoon, at Eighth and Madison.

The Afternoon Cinques Club postponed its meeting until next week.

Wanted

7d3 Manager Special Sale.

Club Meetings.

The Magazine Club is meeting with Miss Julia Scott this afternoon, at Eighth and Madison.

The Afternoon Cinques Club postponed its meeting until next week.

Wanted

7d3 Manager Special Sale.

Club Meetings.

The Magazine Club is meeting with Miss Julia Scott this afternoon, at Eighth and Madison.

The Afternoon Cinques Club postponed its meeting until next week.

Wanted

7d3 Manager Special Sale.

Club Meetings.

The Magazine Club is meeting with Miss Julia Scott this afternoon, at Eighth and Madison.

The Afternoon Cinques Club postponed its meeting until next week.

Wanted

7d3 Manager Special Sale.

Club Meetings.

The Magazine Club is meeting with Miss Julia Scott this afternoon, at Eighth and Madison.

The Afternoon Cinques Club postponed its meeting until next week.

Wanted

7d3 Manager Special Sale.

Club Meetings.

The Magazine Club is meeting with Miss Julia Scott this afternoon, at Eighth and Madison.

The Afternoon Cinques Club postponed its meeting until next week.

Wanted

7d3 Manager Special Sale.

Club Meetings.

The Magazine Club is meeting with Miss Julia Scott this afternoon, at Eighth and Madison.